Spring Regatta Soling-50 Winners

With 6 participants in the Soling -50 Class and 8 in the Santa Barbara class, the competition was serious between Ken Campbell and Rich French our visitor from Bakersfield. Ken coming out on top by just a few points in each class. Congratulations to Ken. Thanks to Greg Dawe & Lon Wahler for performing the RD duties. Hope Mr. French comes back again, he gives us a big challenge.

March 7th Sail Points Race.

My day at the Pond started horribly. But the great sportsmanship and Corinthian spirit showed by my fellow competitors made my day. I showed up with three boats and 1 set of sails...don't ask. Kim outfitted me with some Soling sails and Dennis found some ODOM sails I could use. Thanks guys...way to guys. Test: do you know who the editor is?

Ken dominated the Soling-50 Class when Filippo's error unfortunately sent him to the middle of the pack. Tom almost caught up with Kim Robbins when he got a bullet in the 3rd race, but too little too late. After that last race, Tom asked, but Kim wouldn't sell the sails.

Newsletter - March 2015 - Volume 56 Issue #3

In the Santa Barbara Class it was a two way competition for 1st and 2nd with Ken Campbell and Dennis Frost. Ken struggled with just one 1st place finish, as both Dennis and Rich Fraunzimmer, who is now a regular at the Points events, kept it close by taking a bullet each.

In the ODOM Class Greg Dawe took the honors by nipping Ken by a point. Rich Fraunzimmer was the spoiler when he took first in the second race. John Tyler's two 3rd place finishes kept him in the hunt as he was the "best of the rest" for the class.

ODOM – Winners

The IOMS were a tight racing class with only 3 point separating 1st from 3rd places. Ken Campbell took the honors but Greg and Kim were close at his heels (ah...stern).

IOM - Winners

Thanks to Greg Williams for his excellent and attentive RD work. Good Job.
